PART III: SUPPLEMENTAL INFORMATION

1. Provide a more detailed description and explain the need for the goods, services or grant to supplement the response in Part I.

The Maine Arts Commission is working hard to lift the voices of those who are marginalized and often go unheard. Among those voices are members of the immigrant community. In particular, in southern Maine there is a large population of individuals from countries within the African diaspora. This grant provides funding to Ladder To The Moon to devote a page of their publication Amjumbo Africa! to artists from their community. Click or tap here to enter text.

2. Provide a brief justification for the selected vendor to supplement the response in Part II. Reference the RFP number, if applicable.

We chose to partner with Ladder To The Moon because they create an accessible online and print publication for new immigrant residents. Articles are translated into six languages besides English, including French, Kinyarwanda, Portuguese, Swahili, Somali and Spanish. There is no other publication in Maine like it.

3. Explain how the negotiated costs or rates are fair and reasonable; or how the funding was allocated to grantee.

$6,000 will provide the funding for Ladder To The Moon to hire "stringer" writers to interview and create stories focusing on emerging artists and artist collectives within the immigrant community throughout Maine. The funds are quite modest for the amount of writing that will be generated. Multiple stories will appear in each of their monthly publications.

4. Describe the plan for future competition for the goods or services.

The Maine Arts Commission's support of this program is in part to fulfill the National Endowment for the Arts required outreach to traditional and underrepresented communities. We will be working to identify other opportunities for funding and support for Ladder To The Moon and are confident that this seed funding will inspire others in the marketplace to support this important work.
